1. The amendment filed on 12/29/04 has been received and entered in the case.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Aneha et al.

See paragraph two of the previous office action for the details of this rejection. As to the new limitation of a logic circuit, this is met by any of circuits 29, 28 25 and the three inverters shown in Fig. 1 of Aneha et al (all are types of logic circuits). Under this interpretation, the recited "macrocircuit" of claim 1 reads on all of the remaining circuitry in Aneha et al's Fig. 1 other than the logic circuit. As to the further amendment that the start signal indicates changeover from a stop mode to a normal mode, note that the start signal provided to the reset input of circuit 25 can be broadly interpreted as beginning a "normal" mode, and the stop signal (provided to switch 22 or, alternatively the signal output from logic gate 29) begins a "stop mode". Thus, the current amendments to claim 1 are insufficient for overcoming the rejection based on Aneha et al.

Art Unit: 2816

4. Claims 2-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
